A group of large UK employers are coming together for the fourth consecutive year to help students navigate the uncertainty around employment options and make informed choices about their prospective careers.

The sessions will take place over two weeks in October and provide insight into:

- A day in the life of a particular role & industry
- What career trajectories look like
- The journey of recent graduates and apprentices
- What graduate and non-graduate schemes are available
- How to make a strong application

Uncover opportunities in Finance, Investment Banking, Research and Analysis, Science and Engineering, Cyber Security, Vetting, Real Estate, Medicine, Dentistry, Pharmacy, Software Engineering, Management Consultancy, Tax, Audit, Law, the Police... and much more.

The event is aimed primarily at students studying at school, university or college in the UK from disadvantaged and under-represented backgrounds. However anyone, regardless of background, can attend if they feel they would benefit from the support provided.

Feedback from the 2020 event

“I found the career sessions extremely informative and the organisations that participated the few weeks were varied and introduced a range of valuable concepts”.

“The range of information speakers at both sessions were great and gave a well-rounded insight into the various careers available”.

“I benefited because it gave me an insight into the vast number of careers within the various Sectors and how can take your passion and turn it into a job”.

“It was a great pleasure to be part of the career immersion session. I found it extremely helpful and it consolidated the path I would like to take regarding my future career. I consider myself very lucky to have come across this”.

“I am so happy that my university informed us about these events and that I signed up to the Career Immersion sessions”.

“I really enjoyed the format of the sessions, and actually found the mixed age groups worked quite well, as older students asked some questions that I hadn't considered”.
